HYMNS.

HYMN 1. C. M.

O FOR a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise!
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace!

My gracious Master, and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of thy Name.

Jesus!—the Name that charms our fears
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

He breaks the power of cancell'd sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood avail'd for me.

He speaks—and listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice;
The humble poor believe.

Hear him, ye deaf; his praise, ye dumb,
Your loosen'd tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

Intercession.

HYMN 2. C. M.

COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers:
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls how heavily they go,
To reach eternal joys!

In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

Father, and shall we ever live,
At this poor dying rate?
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Intercession.

HYMN 3. C. M.

FATHER, I stretch my hands to thee,
No other help I know;
If thou withdraw thyself from me,
Ah, whither shall I go?

What did thine only Son endure,
Before I drew my breath!
What pain, what labour to secure
My soul from endless death!

O Jesus, could I this believe,
I now should feel thy power;

Ji denr, yo denght, Akwa donnhets,
Ne ne askwen non na.

4 O righ wi yu, a ken ha ke
A on don kwegh dagh kon:
O da konh, ne egh na yugh don
Ne yagh tha kih he ye.

5 O righ wi yu, a ken ha ke;
O ne, da kwa da tyas;
Yagh tha da ak wis henh he ye
Ne ji nen wa kye ren.

6 Ko wa nenh, ye righ wa ne rax,
She konh, ne en wa don:
To kenghs ke jy, jon dat tre waght
A ka we ryen da konh.

TEYERIGHWAGHKWATHA 4. S. M.

Ne yagh tha kih he ye, on weh
Jit kents ha don tye se.

2 Yen ka don kogh de, ne

Ne neh a-ax wen, wah het ken

3 O sa ya ner, I se,

Ne a kats hen ron ny.

Rejoicing and praise.

TEYERIGHWAGHKWATHA 5. C. M.

1 KA se neh, ne Ke ristusneh,
En tya ka wegh dagh kon;
Segh shon kwa ya da kwenh, Niyoh
Eghts hi de wa nen donh.

Now my poor soul thou wouldst retrieve,
Nor let me wait one hour.

4 Author of faith, to thee I lift
My weary, longing eyes:
O let me now receive that gift,
My soul without it dies.

5 Surely thou canst not let me die;
O speak, and I shall live;
And here I will unwearied lie,
Till thou thy Spirit give.

6 The worst of sinners would rejoice
Could they but see thy face:
O let me hear thy quick'ning voice,
And taste thy pard'ning grace!

Intercession.

HYMN 4. S. M.

1 A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify;
A never dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil:
O may it all my powers engage,
To do my Master's will.

2 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And O thy servant, Lord, prepare,
A strict account to give!
Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
3 Assured if I my trust betray,
I shall for ever die.

Rejoicing and praise.

HYMN 5. C. M.

1 COME, let us who in Christ believe,
Our common Saviour praise:
To him, with joyful voices, give
The glory of his grace.

3 Ne Ra on we sengh dagh xhe ra,
Ji ro ni den regh skonh;
Ran hoh his hon, non kwe rya neh,

5 Ragh sen na no ron, Ro ya ner,
On kyongh wen ja kwe konh,

2 He now stands knocking at the door
Of every sinner's heart:
The worst need keep him out no more,
Or force him to depart.

3 Through grace we hearken to thy voice,
Yield to be saved from sin:
In sure and certain hope rejoice,
That thou wilt enter in.

4 Come quickly in, thou heavenly guest,
Nor ever hence remove;
But sup with us, and let the feast
Be everlasting love.

HYMN 6. C. M.

1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus:
Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honour and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.

4 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name

Shon kwa ya dī son, Ke ris tus,
Ne ragh sen na no ron.

TEYERIGHWAGHKWATHA 7. C. M.

3 O yo nen dont, Ka rongh ya keh,

Of Him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

HYMN 7. C. M.

MY Saviour, my Almighty Friend,
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end,
The numbers of thy grace.

Thou art my everlasting trust,
Thy goodness I adore:
Send down thy grace, O blessed Lord,
That I may love thee more.

My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road:
And march with courage in thy strength,
To see the Lord my God.

Awake, awake, my tuneful powers,
With this delightful song,
And entertain the darkest hours,
Nor think the season long.

HYMN 8. C. M.

HOW happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven:
A country far from mortal sight,
Yet O! by faith I see;
The land of rest, the saints' delight,
The heaven prepared for me.

O what a blessed hope is ours!
While here on earth we stay,
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And antedate that day;

Ongh wen ja keh, de wa ye saghs,
Sa ne, thih ha shats ste.

4 Wah hon ny. En ji twat kets ko,
Ye tyon nhek, Kris tus neh,

5 Neh ent tha ya ken ne,
Ko ragh ko wah Niyoh,
Ne engh tshi te wa wen na ton,
Dsi ni yon kwan hi kon,

We feel the resurrection near,
Our life in Christ conceal'd,
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels fill'd.

O would he more of heaven bestow!
And let the vessels break;
And let our ransom'd spirits go,
To grasp the God we seek;
In rapturous awe on him to gaze,
Who bought the sight for me,
And shout and wonder at his grace
To all eternity.

HYMN 9. S. M.

ALMIGHTY Maker, God,
How glorious is thy name!
Thy wonders how diffused abroad,
Throughout creation's frame!

In native white and red
The rose and lily stand,
And free from pride, their beauties spread
To show thy skilful hand.

The lark mounts up the sky
With unambitious song;
And bears her Maker's praise on high
Upon her artless tongue.

Fain would I rise and sing
To my Creator too;
Fain would my heart adore my King
And give him praises due.

Descend, celestial fire,
And seize me from above!
Wrap me in flames of pure desire,
A sacrifice of love.

9 O nenh te wen ni tenght,
Ne tsi ni yon kwen tenht,
Ne yagh tègh tshi te wa ragh kwa,
Ne shon kwa ya ti son,

The remnant of my days:
And to my God my soul ascend,
In sweet perfumes of praise.

Communion.

HYMN 10. C. M.

BEHOLD the Saviour of mankind
Nail'd to the shameful tree!
How vast the love that him inclined
To bleed and die for thee!

Hark, how he groans! while nature shakes,
And earth's strong pillars bend!
The temple's veil in sunder breaks,
The solid marbles rend.

'Tis done! the precious ransom 's paid,
"Receive my soul!" he cries:
See where he bows his sacred head!
He bows his head and dies!

But soon he'll break death's envious chain,
And in full glory shine:
O Lamb of God, was ever pain,
Was ever love like thine!

HYMN 11. L. M.

OF him who did salvation bring,
I could for ever think and sing;
Arise, ye needy, he'll relieve;
Arise, ye guilty, he'll forgive.

Ask but his grace, and lo, 'tis given!
Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven;
Though sin and sorrow wound my soul,
Jesus, thy balm will make it whole.

3 Ne ji yu de righ wa ne ren,
Wa ke ni kongh ra nengh se re :

To shame our sins he blush'd in blood,
He closed his eyes to show us God;
Let all the world fall down and know,
That none but God such love can show.

'Tis thee I love, for thee alone
I shed my tears and make my moan!
Where'er I am, where'er I move,
I meet the object of my love.

Insatiate to this spring I fly;
I drink, and yet am ever dry;
Ah! who against thy charms is proof?
Ah! who that loves can love enough?

Redemption.

HYMN 12. C. M.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

Was it for crimes that I have done,
He groan'd upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in;
When Christ the mighty Maker died,
For man the creature's sin!

Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

Providence.

Christian fellowship.

HYMN 16. S. M.

BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one
Our comforts and our cares.

We share our mutual woes;
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain,
But we shall still be join'd in heart,
And hope to meet again.

This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

HYMN 17. S. M.

HOW beauteous are their feet,
Who stand on Zion's hill;
That bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal!

How charming is their voice,
So sweet the tidings are;
Zion, behold thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here!"

How happy are our ears,
That hear the joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!

How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light;
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight!

The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad:
Let every nation now behold,
Their Saviour and their God.

To pay their homage at his feet;
While western empires own their Lord,
And savage tribes attend his word.

To him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim,
Their early blessings on his name.

HYMN 19. P. M.

BLOW ye the trumpet, blow,
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound;
The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.

Jesus, our great High Priest,
Hath full atonement made:
Ye weary spirits, rest,
Ye mournful souls, be glad;
The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.

Extol the Lamb of God,
The all-atoning Lamb;
Redemption in his blood
Throughout the world proclaim;
The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.

Ye who have sold for nought
Your heritage above,
Shall have it back unbought,
The gift of Jesus' love;
The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.

The Gospel trumpet hear,
The news of heavenly grace;
And, saved from earth, appear
Before your Saviour's face;
The year of Jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransom'd sinners, home.

HYMN 20. S. M.

JESUS the Conqueror reigns,
In glorious strength array'd:
His kingdom over all maintains,
And bids the earth be glad;
Ye sons of men rejoice
In Jesus' mighty love:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
To him who rules above.

Extol his kingly power,
Kiss the exalted Son,
Who died, and lives to die no more,
High on his Father's throne:
Our Advocate with God,
He undertakes our cause,
And spreads through all the earth abroad
The victory of his cross.

HYMN 21. S. M.

FATHER, our hearts we lift
Up to thy gracious throne, nd thank thee for the precious gift
Of thine incarnate Son!
The gift unspeakable
We thankfully receive,
nd to the world thy goodness tell,
And to thy glory live.

Jesus the holy child,
Doth by his birth declare,
hat God and man are reconciled
And one in him we are.
Salvation through his name
To all mankind is given, nd loud his infant cries proclaim
A peace 'twixt earth and heaven.

A peace on earth he brings,
Which never more shall end:
he Lord of hosts, the King of kings,
Declares himself our Friend;
Assumes our flesh and blood,
That we his grace may gain:
he everlasting Son of God,
The mortal Son of man.

His kingdom from above
He doth to us impart,

With open arms of charity
Embracing all mankind.

O might they all receive
The new-born Prince of peace,
And meekly in his Spirit live!
And in his love increase!
Till he convey us home,
Cry every soul aloud,
Come, thou desire of nations, come,
And take us up to God!

HYMN 22. C. M.

WHILE shepherds watch'd their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shone around.

"Fear not," said he (for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind;)
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

"To you in David's town, this day,
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:

"The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view display'd,
All meanly wrapp'd in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

Thus spake the seraph, and forthwith
Appear'd a shining throng
Of angels praising God, on high,
And thus address'd their song:

6 Ra on we sengh tse ra, Ni yoh,
Ongh wen ja keh, ka yen ;
Ka yan renh, On kweh, a ko wenghk,
Yu dagh sa we, on weh.

HYMN 23. P. M.

THE Lord of earth and sky,
The God of ages praise!
Who reigns enthroned on high,
Ancient of endless days!
Who lengthens out our trials here,
And spares us yet another year.

Barren and wither'd trees,
We cumber'd long the ground!
No fruit of holiness
On our dead souls was found;
Yet doth he us in mercy spare,
Another and another year.

When justice bared the sword,
To cut the fig tree down,
The pity of the Lord
Cried, "Let it still alone!"
The Father mild inclines his ear,
And spares us yet another year.

Jesus, thy speaking blood,
From God obtain'd the grace;
Who therefore hath bestow'd
On us a longer space;
Thou didst in our behalf appear,
And lo! we see another year!

Then dig about the root,
Break up our fallow ground,
And let our gracious fruit
To thy great praise abound;
Let us all thy praise declare,
And fruit unto perfection bear.

WE lift our hearts to thee,
O Day star from on high,
ie sun itself is but thy shade,
Yet cheers both earth and sky,

Let thy orient beams
The night of sin disperse, ie mists of error and of vice,
Which shade the universe!

How beauteous nature now!
How dark and sad before!
ith joy we view the pleasing change,
And nature's God adore.

O may no gloomy crime
Pollute the rising day;
Jesus' blood, like evening dew,
Wash all its stains away!

May we this life improve,
To mourn for errors past:
d live this short revolving day,
As if it were our last.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit one in three,
glory, as it was, is now,
And shall for ever be.

Welcome to this reviving breast,

Here we may sit and see him here,

The blessings ineffable meet:

And fall overwhelm'd at his feet.

How happy the angels that fall
Transported at Jesus's name:
The saints whom he soonest shall call,
To share in the feast of the Lamb!
No longer imprison'd in clay,
Who next from his dungeon shall fly!
Who first shall be summon'd away—
My merciful Lord—Is it I?

O Jesus, if this be thy will,
That suddenly I should depart;
Thy counsel of mercy reveal,
And whisper the call in my heart;
O give me a signal to know,
If soon thou wouldst have me remove,
And leave the dull body below,
And fly to the regions above.

Funeral.

HYMN 34. S. M.

AND must this body die,
This well wrought frame decay?
And must these active limbs of mine
Lie mould'ring in the clay?

Corruption, earth, and worms,
Shall but refine this flesh,
Till my triumphant spirit comes
To put it on afresh.

God my Redeemer lives.
And ever from the skies
Looks down and watches all my dust,
Till he shall bid it rise.

Array'd in glorious grace
Shall these vile bodies shine,

And sing thy grace above!

Of these our humble songs,
Till tunes of nobler sounds we raise
With our immortal tongues.

Judgment.

HYMN 35. S. M.

THOU Judge of quick and dead,
Before whose bar severe,
With holy joy or guilty dread
We all shall soon appear;
Our caution'd souls prepare
For that tremendous day,
And fill us now with watchful care,
And stir us up to pray:

2 To pray and wait the hour,
That awful hour unknown,
When robed in majesty and power,
Thou shalt from heaven come down,
Th' immortal Son of man,
To judge the human race,
With all thy Father's dazzling train,
With all thy glorious grace.

3 To damp our earthly joys,
T' increase our gracious fears,
For ever let th' archangel's voice
Be sounding in our ears;
The solemn midnight cry,
"Ye dead, the Judge is come;
Arise, and meet him in the sky,
And meet your instant doom!"

Judgment.

HYNM 36. L. M.

THE great archangel's trump shall sound,
(While twice ten thousand thunders roar,)
Tear up the graves, and cleave the ground,
And make the greedy sea restore.

The greedy sea shall yield her dead,
The earth no more her slain conceal;
Sinners shall lift their guilty head,
And shrink to see a yawning hell.

But we, who now our Lord confess,
And faithful to the end endure.
Shall stand in Jesus' righteousness—
Stand, as the Rock of ages, sure.

We, while the stars from heaven shall fall,
And mountains are on mountains hurl'd,
Shall stand unmoved amidst them all,
And smile to see a burning world.

The earth and all the works therein
Dissolve, by raging flames destroy'd;

HYMN 37. C. M.

THAT doleful night before his death,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Did, almost with his dying breath,
This solemn feast ordain.

To keep the feast, Lord, we have met,
And to remember thee:
Help each poor trembler to repeat,
"For me, he died for me!"

These sacred signs, thy suff'rings, Lord,
To our remembrance brings:
We eat and drink around thy board,
But think on nobler things.

O tune our tongues, and set in frame,
Each heart that pants for thee,
To sing "Hosanna to the Lamb,"
The Lamb that died for me!

HYMN 38. L. M.

'TWAS on that dark, that solemn night,
When powers of earth and hell arose
Against the Son of God's delight,
And fr ends betray'd him to his foes.

What love through all his actions ran!
What wondrous words of grace he spake!

Meet at my table, and record

The love of your departed Lord.

We share thy death, we sing thy name,

HYMN 39. 4 6's & 2 8's.

ARISE, my soul, arise,
Shake off thy guilty fears,
The bleeding Sacrifice
In my behalf appears ;
Before the throne my Surety stands,
My name is written on his hands.

He ever lives above,
For me to intercede,
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood to plead ;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace

Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Received on Calvary ;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly speak for me ;
Forgive him, O forgive, they cry,
Nor let that ransom'd sinner die !

The Father hears him pray,
His dear anointed One :
He cannot turn away
The presence of his Son :

HYMN 40. 8's & 7's.

HAIL! thou once despised Jesus!
Hail, thou everlasting King,
Thou didst suffer to redeem us!
Thou didst free salvation bring.
Hail, thou agonizing Saviour,
Bearer of our sin and shame!
By thy merits we find favour:
Life is given through thy name.

Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on thee were laid:
By almighty love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made:
All thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of thy blood;
Open'd is the gate of heaven;
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,
There for ever to abide!
All the heavenly hosts adore thee,
Seated at thy Father's side:
There for sinners thou art pleading,
There thou dost our place prepare:
Ever for us interceding,
Till in glory we appear.

HYMN 41. 8 lines 8's.

WHAT now is my object and aim?
What now is my hope and desire?
To follow the heavenly Lamb,
And after his image aspire:
My hope is all centred in thee;
I trust to recover thy love:
On earth thy salvation to see,
And then to enjoy it above.

I thirst for a life-giving God,
A God that on Calvary died:
A fountain of water and blood,
That gush'd from Immanuel's side.
I gasp for the streams of thy love,
The spirit of rapture unknown:
And then to redrink it above,
Eternally fresh from the throne.

HYMN 43. 8 lines 8's.

A FOUNTAIN of Life and of Grace,
In Christ, our Redeemer, we see;
For us, who his offers embrace;
For all, it is open and free:
Jehovah himself doth invite
To drink of his pleasures unknown;
The streams of immortal delight,
That flow from his heavenly throne.
As soon as in him we believe,

By faith of his Spirit we take:
And, freely forgiven, receive
The mercy for Jesus's sake!
We gain a pure drop of his love;
The life of eternity know;
Angelical happiness prove,
And witness a heaven below.

The midsummer sun shines but dim,
The fields strive in vain to look gay;
But when I am happy in him,
December 's as pleasant as May.

His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice:
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear,
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.

Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resign'd;
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind:
While bless'd with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky,
Thy soul-cheering presence restore:

CELESTIAL Dove, descend from high,
And on the water brood:
Come with thy quick'ning power apply
The water and the blood.

I love the Lord, that stoops so low
To give his word a seal;
But the rich grace his hands bestow
Exceeds the figure still.

Almighty God, for thee we call,
And our request renew;
Accept in Christ, and bless withal,
The work we have to do.

HYMN 46. S. M.

MY Saviour's pierced side
Pour'd out a double flood,
By water we are purified,
And pardon'd by his blood.

Call'd from above, I rise,
And wash away my sin;
The stream to which my spirit flies,
Can make the foulest clean.

HYMN 47. C. M.

THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

There everlasting spring abides,
And never-with'ring flowers:
Death, like an arrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood,
Stand drest in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between

Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er;
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

HYMN 48. S. M.

TO bless thy chosen race,
In mercy, Lord, incline;
And cause the brightness of thy face
On all thy saints to shine;

That so thy wondrous way
May through the world be known,
While distant lands their tribute pay,
And thy salvation own.

Let diff'ring nations join
To celebrate thy fame;
Let all the world, O Lord, combine
To praise thy glorious name.

O! let them shout and sing,
With joy and pious mirth;
For thou, the righteous Judge and King
Shalt govern all the earth.

Let diff'ring nations join
To celebrate thy fame;
Let all the world, O Lord, combine
To praise thy glorious name.

HYMN 49. L. M.

WITH one consent let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise,
Glad homage pay with awful mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise.

Convinced that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed,
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock which he vouchsafes to feed.

O enter then his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press,
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.

For he 's the Lord supremely good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

HYMN 50. C. M.

TEYERIGHWAGHKWATHA 51. S's &

1 NE na you das kats na ton hets,
Eh wa degh ni se rok dea,

Thou art the Comforter, the gift
Of God, and fire of love:
The everlasting spring of joy,
And unction from above.

Thy gifts are manifold, thou writ'st
God's law in each true heart:
The promise of the Father, thou
Dost heavenly speech impart.

Enlighten our dark souls, till they
Thy sacred love embrace;
Assist our minds, by nature frail,
With thy celestial grace.

Drive far from us the mortal foe,
And give us peace within;
That, by thy guidance bless'd, we may
Escape the snares of sin.

Teach us the Father to confess,
And Son from death revived;
And with them both, thee, Holy Ghost
Who art from both derived.

With thee, O Father, therefore may
The Son from death restored,
And sacred Comforter, one God
Devoutly be adored;

As in all ages heretofore
Has constantly been done,
As now it is, and shall be so,
When time his course has run.

Funeral.

Go, by angel guards attended,
To the sight of Jesus go.
Waiting to receive thy spirit,
Lo! the Saviour stands above:
Shows the purchase of his merit,
Reaches out the crown of love.

Struggle through thy latest passion,
To thy great Redeemer's breast;
To his uttermost salvation,
To his everlasting rest.
For the joy he sets before thee,
Bear a momentary pain;
Die to live a life of glory:
Suffer, with thy Lord to reign.

Trusting in grace.

HYMN 52. L. M.

JESUS my all to heaven is gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon:
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment
The King's highway of holiness
I'll go for all his paths are peace.

This is the way I long have sought,
And mourn'd because I found it not;
My grief a burden long has been,
Because I was not saved from sin.

The more I strove against its power,
I felt its weight and guilt the more;
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
"Come hither, soul, I AM THE WAY."

Lo! glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee, whose I am;
Nothing but sin have I to give,
Nothing but love shall I receive.

HYMN 53. C. M.

BLEST be the dear uniting love,
That will not let us part,
Our bodies may far off remove,
We still are one in heart.

Join'd in one spirit to our Head,
Where he appoints we go;
And still in Jesus' footsteps tread,
And show his praise below.

O may we ever walk in him,
And nothing know beside,
Nothing desire, nothing esteem,
But Jesus crucified!

Closer and closer let us cleave
To his beloved embrace;
Expect his fulness to receive,
And grace to answer grace.

Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
The same in mind and heart,
Nor joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
Nor life, nor death, can part.

But let us hasten to the day,
Which shall our flesh restore;
When death shall all be done away,
And bodies part no more.

HYMN 87. C. M.

FATHER of mercies, in thy word
What endless glory shines?
For ever be thy name adored,
For these celestial lines.

2 Here may the wretched sons of want
Exhaustless riches find;
Riches above what earth can grant,
And lasting as the mind.

3 Here the Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

4 O! may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight;
And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light!

5 Divine Instructer, gracious Lord,
Be thou for ever near;
Teach me to love thy sacred word,
And view my Saviour there.

HYMN 88. C. M.

1 GREAT God, with wonder and with prai
On all thy works I look!
But still thy wisdom, power, and grace,
Shine brightest in thy Book.

2 The stars, that in their courses roll,
Have much instruction given;
But thy good Word informs my soul
How I may climb to heaven.

3 The fields provide me food, and show
The goodness of the Lord;

But fruits of life and glory grow
In the most holy word.

Here are my choicest treasures hid,
Here my best comfort lies;
Here my desires are satisfied,
And hence my hopes arise.

Lord, make me understand thy law,
Show what my faults have been;
And, from thy gospel, let me know
There's pardon for my sin.

Here would I learn how Christ hath died
To save my soul from hell;
Not all the books on earth beside
Such heavenly wonders tell.

Then let me love my Bible more,
And take a fresh delight,
By day to read these wonders o'er,
And meditate by night.

HYMN 89. C. M.

JESUS, my Saviour and my Lord,
To thee I lift mine eyes;
Instruct me by thy holy word,
And make me truly wise.

Make me to know and understand
Thy whole revealed will;
Fain would I learn to comprehend
Thy love more clearly still.

Help me to read this volume o'er,
With always fresh delight;
Help me to love its Author more,
And seek thee day and night.

O may this word my thoughts engage
In each perplexing case;
Help me to feed on every page,
And grow in every grace.

Thy grace shall purify my heart,
Thy word shall guide my ways;
Their wonders, Lord, to me impart,
And thou shalt have the praise.

HYMN 90. C. M.

O THAT the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still!
O that my God would grant me grace,
To know and do his will!

O send thy Spirit down to write
Thy law upon my heart;
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Nor act the liar's part.

Order my footsteps by thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

Make me to walk in thy commands,
'Tis a delightful road;
Nor let my head, or heart, or hands,
Offend against my God.

HYMN 91. C. M.

THIS is the field where hidden lies
The Pearl of price unknown;
Those children are divinely wise,
Who make that Pearl their own.

Here consecrated water flows,
To quench our thirst of sin;
Here the fair tree of knowledge grows,
Nor danger dwells therein.

This is the judge that ends the strife,
Where wit and reason fail;
Our guide to everlasting life,
Through all this gloomy vale.

O! may thy counsels, mighty God,
Our roving feet command;
Nor we forsake the happy road,
That leads to thy right hand.

HYMN 92. S. M.

THE praises of my tongue
I offer to the Lord,
That I was taught, and learnt so young.
To read his holy word:

That I am brought to know
The danger I was in;
By nature, and by practice too,
A wretched slave to sin:

That I am led to see
I can do nothing well;
And whither shall a sinner flee,
To save himself from hell?

Dear Lord! this book of thine
Informs me where to go,
For grace, to pardon all my sins,
And make me holy too.

HYMN 93. 8's & 7's.

WHAT a mercy! what a treasure!
I possess in thy dear word;
There I read, with holy pleasure,
Of the love of Christ my Lord.

That dear word reveals the Saviour
Sinful children deeply need;
O! what mercy, love, and favour,
That for sinners Christ should bleed.

O! the blessedness of knowing
Christ the tender Saviour's love
Freely on a child bestowing
Grace and mercy from above.

4 May that book be ever prized
Far above our little toys ;
All beside should be despised,
While we seek superior joys.

GOD AND HIS PERFECTIONS.

HYMN 94. C. M.

1 ALMIGHTY God, thy piercing eye
Strikes through the shades of night;
And our most secret actions lie
All open to thy sight.

2 There's not a sin that we commit,
Nor wicked word we say,
But in thy dreadful book 'tis writ,
Against the judgment day.

3 And must the crimes that I have done
Be read and publish'd there;
Be all exposed before the sun,
While men and angels hear?

4 Lord, at thy feet ashamed I lie ;
Upward I dare not look;
Pardon my sins before I die,
And blot them from thy book.

5 Remember all the dying pains
That my Redeemer felt;
And let his blood wash out my stains,
And answer for my guilt.

6 O may I now for ever fear
T' indulge a sinful thought;
Since the great God can see and hear,
And writes down every fault.

HYMN 95. L. M.

1 GREAT God, and wilt thou condescend
To be my Father, and my Friend?
I a poor child, and thou so high,
The Lord of earth, and air, and sky.

Art thou my Father? Canst thou bear
To hear my poor imperfect prayer?
Or wilt thou listen to the praise,
That such a little one can raise?

Art thou my Father? I'll depend
Upon the care of such a Friend;
And only wish to do, and be,
Whatever seemeth good to thee.

Art thou my Father? Then, at last,
When all my days on earth are past,
Send down and take me, in thy love,
To be thy better child above.

HYMN 96. C. M.

1 HOW glorious is our heavenly King,
Who reigns above the sky;
How shall a child presume to sing
His dreadful majesty.

2 How great his power is, none can tell,
Or think how large his grace;
Not men below, nor saints that dwell
On high before his face.

3 Not angels, that stand round the Lord
Can search his secret will;
But they perform his heavenly word,
And sing his praises still.

4 Then let me join this heavenly train,
And my first offerings bring;
Th' eternal God will not disdain
To hear an infant sing.

5 My heart resolves, my tongue obeys,
And angels shall rejoice
To hear their mighty Maker's praise
Sound from a feeble voice.

HYMN 97. S. M.

1 MY soul, repeat his praise,
Whose mercies are so great,
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

2 God will not always chide;
And when his strokes are felt,
His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
And lighter than our guilt.

3 His power subdues our sins;
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

4 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.

HYMN 98. C. M.

1 TO God, who reigns above the sky,
Our Father and our Friend,
To him let all our vows be paid,
And all our prayers ascend.

2 'Tis he who claims our youthful hearts,
He loves to hear us pray;
By night we'll think upon his love,
And praise him every day.

3 When we offend against our God,
We'll ask his pard'ning love;
'Twas for our sins the Saviour died;
He pleads for us above.

4 With all the love a father feels,
He pities and forgives;
And though our earthly parents die;
Our heavenly Father lives.

HYMN 99. L. M.

WE bless the Lord, the just, the good,
Who fills our hearts with joy and food;
Who pours his blessings from the skies,
And loads our days with rich supplies.

He sends the sun his circuit round,
To cheer the fruits, to warm the ground,
He bids the clouds, with plenteous rain,
Refresh the thirsty earth again.

'Tis to his care we owe our breath,
And all our near escapes from death;
Safety and health to God belong,
He heals the weak, and guards the strong.

He makes the saint and sinner prove
The common blessings of his love;
But the wide diff'rence that remains,
Is endless joys, or endless pains.

HYMN 100. C. M.

ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall:
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

Ye Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

Babes, men, and sires, who know his love,
Who feel your sin and thrall,
Now join with all the hosts above,
And crown him Lord of all.

Let every tribe and every tongue,
On this terrestrial ball,
Unite in one harmonious song,
And crown him Lord of all.

HYMN 101. 8's & 7's.

JESUS Christ, my Lord and Saviour,
Once became a child like me;
O! that, in my whole behaviour,
He my pattern still may be.

All my nature is unholy,
Pride and passion dwell within;
But the Lord was meek and lowly,
And was never known to sin.

While I'm often vainly trying
Some new pleasure to possess;
He was always self-denying,
Patient in his worst distress.

Lord, assist a feeble creature,
Guide me by thy word of truth;
Condescend to be my teacher,
Through my childhood and my youth.

HYMN 102. 8's & 7's.

ONE there is above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end:
They, who his affections prove,
Find his heart abounds with love.

Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?
But our Jesus died to have us
Reconciled in him to God:
This was boundless love indeed!
Jesus is a Friend in need.

When he lived on earth abased
Friend of sinners was his name;
Now, above all glory raised,
He rejoices in the same:
Still he calls them brethren, friends,
And to all their wants attends.

O for grace, our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
We, alas! forget too often
What a Friend we have above;
But, when home our souls are brought
We will love thee as we ought.

HYMN 103. 4 6's & 2 8's.

REJOICE, the Lord is King;
Your God and King adore;
Mortals, give thanks and sing,
And triumph evermore:
Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice.

The Saviour Jesus reigns,
The God of truth and love;
When he had wash'd our stains,
He took his seat above:
Lift up your hearts, &c.

His kingdom cannot fail,
He rules o'er earth and heaven:
The keys of death and hell
Are to our Jesus given:
Lift up your hearts, &c.

Rejoice in glorious hope,
Jesus the Judge shall come,
And take his servants up
To their eternal home.
We soon shall hear th' archangel's voice,
The trump of God shall sound—Rejoice.

HYMN 104. C. M.

SEE the kind Shepherd, Jesus, stand
With all engaging charms;
Hark, how he calls the tender lambs,
And folds them in his arms.

Permit them to approach, he cries,
Nor scorn their humble name;

For 'twas to bless such souls as these,
The Lord of angels came.

3 He'll lead us to the heavenly streams,
Where living waters flow;
And guide us to the fruitful fields,
Where trees of knowledge grow.

4 The feeblest lamb amidst the flock
Shall be its Shepherd's care;
While folded in the Saviour's arms,
We're safe from every snare.

HYMN 105. C. M.

1 ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed,
And did my sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done,
He groan'd upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the gracious Saviour, died
For man the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While thy dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'Tis all that I can do.

HYMN 106. 8's & 7's.

1 COME, thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;

Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise.

2 Jesus sought me, when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to save my soul from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.

3 O! to grace how great a debtor,
Daily I'm constrain'd to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to thee.

4 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it,
Seal it from thy courts above.

HYMN 107. L. M.

BLESSINGS for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men;
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen.

HYMN 108. S. M.

1 COME, Holy Spirit, come,
Let thy bright beams arise;
Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
The darkness from our eyes.

2 Convince us of our sin,
Then lead to Jesus' blood;
And to our wond'ring view reveal
The secret love of God.

3 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new create the whole.

4 Dwell therefore in our hearts;
Our minds from bondage free;
Then shall we know, and praise, and love,
The FATHER, SON, and THEE.

HYMN 109. L. M.

1 DESCEND from heaven, immortal Dove,
Stoop down and take us on thy wings,
And mount and bear us far above
The reach of these inferior things.

2 Beyond, beyond this lower sky,
Up where eternal ages roll,
Where solid pleasures never die,
And fruits immortal feast the soul.

3 O for a sight, a pleasing sight,
Of our Almighty Father's throne!
There sits our Saviour crown'd with light,
Clothed in a body like our own.

Adoring saints around him stand,
And thrones and powers before him fall;
The God shines gracious through the man,
And sheds sweet glories on them all.

5 O what amazing joys they feel,
While to their golden harps they sing,
And sit on every heavenly hill,
And spread the triumphs of their King!

6 When shall the day, dear Lord, appear,
That I shall mount to dwell above,
And stand and bow amongst them there,
And view thy face, and sing thy love?

CREATION AND PROVIDENCE.

HYMN 110. C. M.

1 ALMIGHTY Father, gracious Lord,
Kind guardian of my days;
Thy mercies let my heart record,
In songs of grateful praise.

2 In life's first days, my tender frame
Was thine indulgent care;
Long ere I could pronounce thy name,
Or lisp an infant prayer.

3 Each rolling year new favours brought
From thy exhaustless store;
But, ah! in vain my lab'ring thought
Would count thy mercies o'er.

4 Yet I adore the gracious Lord
For favours more divine,
That I am taught thy sacred word,
Where all thy glories shine.

HYMN 111. L. M.

1 FATHER Almighty! God of love!
How condescending is thy care!
That we should thus thy favours prove,
And of thy sovereign bounty share!

2 Neglected from their infant days,
What thousands walk the paths of wo;
While we are shown thy better ways,
And up to heaven are call'd to go.

3 While warn'd betimes thy name to fear,
And taught thy sacred word to read,
May grace divine be ever near,
Our youthful hearts to wisdom lead.

4 From lake to lake, from shore to shore,
Let rich and poor obey thy voice;
Then shall the Indians all adore,
The daughters of distress rejoice.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

HYMN 112. S. M.

1 FROM thee, our bountéous God,
We every good receive;
Thou giv'st us clothing, friends, and food,
And by thy grace we live.

2 Thy pitying eye beheld
How we in darkness lay;
From thee this institution came,
That we might read and pray.

3 O let us greatly prize
These kind instructions given;
For now we read thy holy book,
That guides our feet to heaven.

4 O may thy Spirit bless
This learning to our good!
And may our benefactors find
The favour of their God!

5 May we and they, at last,
At thy right hand appear;
And, when the toils of life are past,
All meet in glory there.

HYMN 113. S. M.

1 HOW wondrous is this frame,
As I its parts survey;
These hands, these feet, this body, came
But from a mass of clay:

2 And in this fair machine
Dwells an immortal mind,
Placed here, by some great hand unseen,
For some great end design'd.

3 Before thy gracious throne,
Thou condescending Lord,
I bend the knee, and humbly own
Thy name should be adored.

4 'Twas thou who gav'st me breath,
Who bad'st me live and move;
O may I bless thy name till death,
Then worship thee above.

HYMN 114. C. M.

1 I SING th' almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise;
That spread the flowing lakes abroad,
And built the lofty skies.

2 I sing the wisdom that ordain'd
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.

3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That fill'd the earth with food;
He form'd the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.

4 Lord, how thy wonders are display'd,
Where'er I turn mine eyes;
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the skies.

5 There's not a plant or flower below,
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from thy throne.

6 His hand is my perpetual guard,
He keeps me with his eye;
Why should I then forget the Lord,
Who is for ever nigh.

HYMN 115. C. M.

1 LORD, when our raptured thought surveys
Creation's beauties o'er,
All nature joins to teach thy praise,
And bid our souls adore.

2 The living tribes of countless forms,
In earth, and sea, and air,
The meanest flies, the smallest worms,
Almighty power declare.

3 Thy wisdom, power, and goodness, Lord,
In all thy works appear;
And O! let man thy praise record—
Man, thy distinguish'd care!

4 On us thy providence has shone
With gentle smiling rays;
O! may our lips and lives make known
Thy goodness and thy praise.

HYMN 116. C. M.

1 LORD, I would own thy tender care,
And all thy love to me;
The food I eat, the clothes I wear,
Are all bestow'd by thee.

2 'Tis thou preservest me from death,
And dangers every hour;
I cannot draw another breath,
Unless thou give the power.

3 My health, and friends, and parents dear,
To me by God are given;
I have not any blessing here,
But what is sent from heaven.

4 Such goodness, Lord, and constant care,
A child can ne'er repay;
But may it be my daily prayer
To love thee and obey.

THE FALL AND SINFULNESS OF MAN.

HYMN 117. C. M.

1 HOW sad our state by nature is!
Our sin how deep it stains!
And Satan binds our captive souls
Fast in his slavish chains.

2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace
Sounds from the sacred word:
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,
"And trust upon the Lord."

3 To the dear fountain of thy blood
Help me, O Lord, to fly;
Here let me wash my spotted soul
From crimes of deepest dye.

4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness,
My Jesus, and my all.

HYMN 118. C. M.

1 O LORD, forgive a sinful child,
Whose heart is all unclean!
How base am I, and how defiled
By the vile work of sin.

2 How justly might thine anger rise,
And sink me down to hell;
To feel the worm that never dies,
In endless flames to dwell.

3 O change this stubborn heart of mine
And make me pure within!
Still manifest thy love divine,
And save me from my sin.

4 Stubborn, untractable, and wild,
Is my obdurate heart;
O Lord, to me, thy chaste, thy mild,
Thy holy mind impart.

5 Then shall I make redeeming love
My daily, hourly song;
And joys, like theirs who sing above,
Shall tune my youthful tongue.

THE YOUNG.

HYMN 119. C. M.

1 HAPPY the child, whose youngest years
Receive instruction well,
Who hates the sinner's path, and fears
The road that leads to hell.

2 When we devote our youth to God,
'Tis pleasing in his eyes;
A flower, when offer'd in the bud,
Is no vain sacrifice.

3 'Tis easier work, if we begin
To fear the Lord betimes;
While sinners, that grow old in sin,
Are harden'd in their crimes.

4 'Twill save us from a thousand snares,
To mind religion young;
Grace will preserve our following years,
And make our virtue strong.

5 To thee, Almighty God, to thee,
Our childhood we resign;
'Twill please us to look back and see
That our whole lives were thine.

6 Let the sweet work of prayer and praise
Employ my youngest breath;
Thus I'm prepared for longer days,
Or fit for early death.

HYMN 120. L. M.

1 NOW, in the heat of youthful blood,
Remember thy Creator, GOD!
Behold, the months come hastening on,
When you shall say, My joys are gone.

2 Behold, the aged sinner goes,
Laden with guilt and heavy woes,

Down to the regions of the dead,
With endless curses on his head.

The dust returns to dust again,
The soul, in agonies of pain,
Ascends to God; not there to dwell;
But hears her doom, and sinks to hell.

Eternal King, I fear thy name;
Teach me to know how frail I am;
And when my soul must hence remove,
Give me a dwelling in thy love.

THE LORD'S DAY.

HYMN 121. L. M.

ANŌTHER six days' work is done,
Another sabbath is begun;
Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God hath bless'd.

In holy duties, let the day,
In holy pleasures, pass away:
How sweet a sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

HYMN 122. S. M.

ANOTHER week begins;
This day we call the Lord's;
This day, he rose who bore our sins
For so his word records.

Hark, how the angels sing!
Their voices fill the sky;
They hail their great victorious King,
And welcome him on high.

We'll catch the notes of praise;
Their joys, in part, we feel;
With them our thankful song we'll raise,
And emulate their zeal.

4 Come, children, then, and sing
Of Christ, our risen Lord;
Of Christ the everlasting King;
Of Christ th' incarnate Word!

5 Hail, mighty Saviour, hail!
Who fill'st the throne above;
Till heart and flesh together fail,
We'll sing thy matchless love.

6 And when these tongues no more
On any theme can move;
We hope to sing thy love and power,
With other tongues above.

HYMN 123. L. M.

1 AWAKE, my heart, my soul, arise;
This is the day believers prize:
Improve this sabbath then with care;
Another may not be thy share.

2 O solemn thought! Lord, give me power
Wisely to fill up every hour;
O! for the wings of faith and love,
To bear my heart and soul above!

3 Be with me in thine house, to-day,
And tune my heart to praise and pray;
Like dew, command thy word to fall,
Refreshing, quickening, saving all.

HYMN 124. 4 8's & 2 6's.

1 LORD, help my youthful heart to raise
My morning song of grateful praise,
For all thy guardian care;
Which kept me safe through every hour,
Protected by Almighty power,
From death, distress, and fear.

2 Thy boundless love has led my way,
And brought me to this sacred day,
The sabbath of my Lord;

To his blest courts I now repair,
The house of God, of praise, and prayer,
To hear his holy word.

3 Impress my mind with solemn awe,
And on it write thy heavenly law,
And shed thy love abroad;
Convinced by grace of all my sin,
Pardon, and make me pure within,
My Saviour and my God.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

HYMN 125. 4 6's & 2 8's.

1 JESUS, our holy Lord,
Thy name we join to sing,
Who didst, on this glad day,
Complete salvation bring.
We bless the Lord, who, from the grave,
Arose again, lost man to save.

2 Through mercy we are call'd
Though young in years, to praise
The conquests of thy love,
The riches of thy grace:
O may our hearts in thee rejoice,
And take thee as our only choice.

3 Dear Lord, forgive the child,
Who plays and sins away,
The mercies we enjoy,
On this most blessed day:
For here we learn to serve the Lord,
And sing his praise, and hear his word.

4 Through thy redeeming blood,
Dear Saviour, set us free;
Assisted by thy grace,
O! may we live to thee:
And take us, Lord, when we shall die,
To dwell with thee above the sky.

HYMN 126. L. M.

1 SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound!

HYMN 127. L. M.

1 THANKS to thy name, O Lord, that we
One glorious sabbath more behold;
Dear Shepherd, let us meet with thee,
Among thy sheep, in this thy fold.

2 Now, Lord, among thy tribes appear,
And let thy presence fill the throng;
Thy awful voice let sinners hear,
And bid the feeble heart be strong.

3 Gather the lambs into thine arms,
And satisfy their every want;
And all the young defend from harms,
And gently lead them, lest they faint.

HYMN 128. C. M.

1 THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours his own;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day Christ rose, and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints his triumphs spread,
And all his wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to th' anointed King,
To David's holy Son;

Help us, O Lord; descend, and bring
Salvation from thy throne.

4 Hosanna! in the highest strains,
The church on earth can raise;
The highest heavens, in which he reigns,
Shall give him nobler praise.

HYMN 129. L. M.

1 WE'VE pass'd another sabbath day,
And heard of Jesus and of heaven;
We thank thee for thy word, and pray
That sabbath sins may be forgiven.

2 May all we heard and understood,
Be well remember'd through the week;
And help to make us wise and good,
More humble, diligent, and meek.

PRAYER.

HYMN 130. 4 8's & 2 6's.

1 BE it my only wisdom here,
To serve the Lord with filial fear,
With loving gratitude:
Superior sense may I display,
By shunning every evil way,
And walking in the good.

2 O may I still from sin depart:
A wise and understanding heart,
Jesus, to me be given;
And let me, through thy Spirit, know
To glorify my God below,
And find my way to heaven.

HYMN 131. C. M.

1 LORD, teach a little child to pray,
Thy grace betimes impart,

And grant, thy Holy Spirit may
Renew my infant heart.

2 A sinful creature I was born,
And from the womb have stray'd;
I must be wretched and forlorn,
Without thy mercy's aid.

3 But Christ can all my sins forgive,
And wash away their stain,
Can fit my soul with him to live,
And in his kingdom reign.

4 To him let little children come,
For he has said they may;
His bosom then shall be their home
Their tears he'll wipe away.

or all, who early seek his face,
Shall surely taste his love;
Jesus shall guide them by his grace,
To dwell with him above.

HYMN 132. C. M.

1 WHY should I love my sport so well,
So constant at my play,
And lose the thoughts of heaven and hell,
And then forget to pray?

2 What do I read my Bible for,
But, Lord, to learn thy will?
And shall I daily know thee more,
And less obey thee still?

3 How senseless is my heart, and wild!
How vain are all my thoughts!
Pity the weakness of a child,
And pardon all my faults.

4 Make me thy heavenly voice to hear,
And let me love to pray;

Since God will lend a gracious ear
To what a child can say.

PRAISE.

HYMN 133. C. M.

1 CHILDREN, of old, hosannas sung,
To praise the Saviour's name;
We too would join our youthful song,
To celebrate his fame.

2 We bless the Lord for all his gifts,
For life, for food, and friends;
We bless him for the word of life,
The choicest gift he sends.

3 We bless his name, that we are taught
To keep his sacred day;
And that we thus are brought to join
With those who praise and pray.

4 O may we prize these favours well,
Nor let them be in vain;
Teach babes and sucklings, Lord, to raise
Their songs to thee again.

HYMN 134. L. M.

1 FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord,
Eternal truth attends thy word;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till sun shall rise and set no more.

HYMN 135. L. M.

1 GREAT God, to thee my voice I raise,
To thee my youngest hours belong:

I would begin my life with praise,
Till growing years improve the song.

2 'Tis to thy sovereign grace I owe,
That I was born on British ground;
Where streams of heavenly mercy flow,
And words of sweet salvation sound.

3 I would not change my native land
For rich Peru, with all her gold;
A nobler prize lies in my hand,
Than East or Western Indies hold.

4 How do I pity those that dwell
Where ignorance and darkness reigns;
They know no heaven, they fear no hell,
Those endless joys, those endless pains.

5 [illegible]glorious promises, O Lord,
[illegible]e my hopes and my desire;
[illegible] all the preachers of thy word
Warn me t' escape eternal fire.

6 Thy praise shall still employ my breath,
Since thou hast mark'd my way to heaven;
Nor will I run the road to death,
And waste the blessings thou hast given.

HYMN 136. L. M.

1 HOSANNA to King David's Son,
Who reigns on a superior throne;
We bless the Prince of heavenly birth,
Who brings salvation down to earth.

2 Let every nation, every age,
In this delightful work engage;
Old men and babes in Sion sing,
The growing glories of her King.

HYMN 137. C. M.

1 HOSANNA to the Prince of grace!
Sion, behold your King!

Proclaim the Son of David's race,
And teach the babes to sing.

Hosanna to th' incarnate Word,
Who from the Father came;
Ascribe salvation to the Lord,
With blessings on his name.

HYMN 138. L. M.

THIS God is the God we adore,
Our faithful unchangeable friend;
Whose love is as great as his power,
And neither knows measure nor end.

'Tis Jesus, the first and the last,
Whose Spirit shall guide us safe home;
We'll praise him for all that is past,
And trust him for all that's to come.

MORNING HYMN.

HYMN 139. C. M.

THROUGH all the dangers of the night,
Preserved, O Lord, by thee,
Again we hail the cheerful light,
Again we bow the knee.

Preserve us, Lord, throughout the day,
And guide us by thine arm;
For they are safe, and only they,
Whom thou preserv'st from harm.

Let all our words, and all our ways,
Declare that we are thine;
That so the light of truth and grace
Before the world may shine.

Let us ne'er turn away from thee;
Dear Saviour, hold us fast,
Till, with immortal eyes, we see
Thy glorious face at last.

TIME AND ETERNITY.

HYMN 140. C. M.

1 TIME! what an empty vapour 'tis!
And days, how swift they are;
Swift as an Indian arrow flies,
Or like a shooting star.

2 Yet, mighty God, our fleeting days
Thy lasting favours share,
Yet, with the bounties of thy grace,
Thou load'st the rolling year.

3 'Tis sovereign mercy finds us food,
And we are clothed with love;
While grace stands pointing out the road,
That leads our souls above.

4 Thy goodness runs an endless round,
All glory to the Lord;
Thy mercy never knows a bound,
And be thy name adored.

DEATH AND JUDGMENT.

HYMN 141. C. M.

Death of a scholar.

1 DEATH has been here, and borne away
A brother from our side;
Just in the morning of his day;
As young as we he died.

2 We cannot tell who next may fall
Beneath thy chastening rod;
One must be first, but let us all
Prepare to meet our God.

3 May each attend, with willing feet,
The means of knowledge here;

And wait around thy mercy seat,
With hope, as well as fear.

4 All needful strength is thine to give;
To thee our souls apply,
For grace to teach us how to live,
And make us fit to die.

5 Then, to thy wisdom and thy care,
We would resign our days;
Content to live, and serve thee here,
Or die, and sing thy praise.

HEAVEN AND HELL.

HYMN 142. S. M.

1 THERE is beyond the sky
A heaven of joy and love;
And holy children, when they die,
Go to that world above.

2 There is a dreadful hell,
And everlasting pains,
Where sinners must with devils dwell
In darkness, fire, and chains.

3 Can such a wretch as I
Escape this cursed end?
And may I hope, whene'er I die,
I shall to heaven ascend.

4 Then I for grace will pray,
While I have life and breath;
Lest I should be cut off to day,
And sent t' eternal death.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HYMN 143. S. M.

The Hosanna.

HOSANNA to the Son
Of David and of God,
Who brought the news of pardon down,
And bought it with his blood.

To Christ, th' anointed King,
Be endless blessings given;
Let the whole earth his glory sing,
Who made our peace with heaven.

HYMN 144. L. M.

Not ashamed of Christ.

JESUS! and shall it ever be,
A mortal man ashamed of thee?
Ashamed of thee! whom angels praise,
Whose glory shines through endless days.

hamed of Jesus! sooner far evening blush to own a star:
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.

Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon
Let midnight be ashamed of noon;
'Tis midnight with my soul till he,
Bright morning Star! bid darkness flee.

shamed of Jesus!—yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away;
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.

Till then,—nor is my boasting vain,—
Till then I'll boast a Saviour slain;
And, O, may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me.

HYMN 145. L. M.

Prayer and praise.

1 THOU God of love, whose gracious ear
The fervent prayer delights to hear;
And when e'en babes and sucklings praise,
Approves the feeble notes they raise.

2 Let children of the humble poor
Unite thy goodness to adore,
In all thy tender watchful care,
In all the mercies that we share.

3 Thy power defends from every harm,
Thy bounty clothes and keeps us warm.
Feeds and supports our growing frame;
Eternal praises to thy name.

4 But O! what homage shall we pay,
For blessings that attend thy day;
When we are taught to read and sing
The honours of our heavenly King.

Backsliding.

HYMN 146. C. M.

1 O FOR a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

2 Where is the blessedness I knew,
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoy'd,
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove, return
Sweet messenger of rest:
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Rejoicing and praise.

HYMN 147. 6 lines 8's.

1 I'LL praise my Maker while I've breath,
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures.

2 Happy the man whose hopes rely
On Israel's God; he made the sky,
And earth, and seas, with all their train;
His truth for ever stands secure!
He saves th' oppress'd, he feeds the poor,
And none shall find his promise vain.

3 The Lord pours eyesight on the blind;
The Lord supports the fainting mind;
He sends the lab'ring conscience peace:
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless,
And grants the prisoner sweet release.

4 I'll praise him while he lends me breath,
And when my voice is lost in death,
Praise shall employ my nobler powers:

My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last,
Or immortality endures.

Rejoicing and praise.

HYMN 148. S. M.

COME, ye that love the Lord,
And let your joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
While ye surround his throne.
Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God;
But servants of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

The God that rules on high,
That all the earth surveys,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And calms the roaring seas;
This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love,
He will send down his heavenly powers
To carry us above.

There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin!
There, from the rivers of his grace
Drink endless pleasures in:
Yea, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.

The men of grace have found
Glory begun below,
Celestial fruit on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow:
Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry:

We're marching through Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

Resurrection.

HYMN 149. L. M.

1 HE dies, the Friend of sinners dies,
Lo! Salem's daughters weep around;
A solemn darkness veils the skies!
A sudden trembling shakes the ground!

2 Come, saints, and drop a tear or two
For him who groan'd beneath your load:
He shed a thousand drops for you,
A thousand drops of richer blood.

3 Here's love and grief beyond degree,
The Lord of glory dies for man!
But lo! what sudden joys we see:
Jesus the dead revives again!

4 The rising God forsakes the tomb;
(In vain the tomb forbids his rise:)
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.

5 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell,
How high your great Deliv'rer reigns:
Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell,
And led the monster death in chains!

6 Say, "Live for ever, wondrous King!
Born to redeem, and strong to save!"
Then ask the monster, "Where's thy sting?
And where's thy vict'ry, boasting grave?"

HYMN 150. L. M.

1 ETERNAL Power, whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God;
Infinite lengths, beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds:

Thee while the first archangel sings,
He hides his face behind his wings:
And ranks of shining thrones around
Fall worshipping, and spread the ground.

Lord, what shall earth and ashes do?
We would adore our Maker too!
From sin and dust to thee we cry,
The Great, the Holy, and the High!

Earth from afar hath heard thy fame,
And worms have learnt to lisp thy name;
But O! the glories of thy mind
Leave all our soaring thoughts behind!
God is in heaven, and men below:
Be short our tunes; our words be few!
A solemn reverence checks our songs,
And praise sits silent on our tongues.

Penitential.

HYMN 151. 6 lines 8's.

COME, O thou Traveller unknown,
Whom still I hold, but cannot see!
My company before is gone,
And I am left alone with thee.
With thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.

I need not tell thee who I am;
My misery and sin declare,
Thyself hast call'd me by my name,
Look on thy hands, and read it there:
But who, I ask thee, who art thou?
Tell me thy name, and tell me now.

In vain thou strugglest to get free,
I never will unloose my hold;
Art thou the man that died for me?
The secret of thy love unfold:
Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
Till I thy name, thy nature know.

4 Wilt thou not yet to me reveal
Thy new, unutterable name?
Tell me, I still beseech thee, tell;
To know it now resolved I am:
Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
Till I thy name, thy nature know.

5 What though my shrinking flesh complain,
And murmur to contend so long:
I rise superior to my pain:
When I am weak, then I am strong!
And when my all of strength shall fail,
I shall with the God-Man prevail.

DOXOLOGIES AND SINGLE VERSES.

HYMN 152. S. M.

At parting.

1 ONCE more before we part,
We'll bless the Saviour's name;
Record his mercies every heart,
Sing every tongue the same.

HYMN 153. L. M.

1 PRAISE God, from whom all blessings f
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

HYMN 154. C. M.

1 TO Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One God, whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

HYMN 155. L. M.

1 TO God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, three in one,
Be honour, praise, and glory, given
By all on earth, and all in heaven.
